FRANKFORT, Ky. (April 29, 2016) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Deputy Commissioner Kim Potter-Blair today announced the promotion of Taliyah Jefferson to assistant district supervisor of District 7. District 7 encompasses Boone, Campbell and Kenton counties.

"I am confident that Jefferson's experience and knowledge will serve her well in her new position," said Potter-Blair. "We are confident that she will be an excellent addition to our management team."

Jefferson began her career with the Kentucky Department of Corrections in August 2006 as a probation and parole officer in District 7. During her years of service, she has supervised the Transitions Inc. York Street Halfway House while acting as intake liaison for incoming paroles and maintaining a regular probation and parole caseload.
